Dear Shawn,

Congratulations! Your entry to IFAW's Help Save the Humpback Whale Drawing Contest has been selected as the representative from your state to be displayed at the International Whaling Commission (IWC) meeting in Anchorage, Alaska.

www.ifaw.org

Your entry will be displayed for decision-makers from all around the world, in hopes of convincing them to take additional actions to help protect the majestic humpback whale.

Your artistic contribution makes a huge difference in IFAW's efforts to protect whales worldwide, and your words are an inspiration to all of us concerned about protecting animals and the environment. Thank you, and keep up the great work!

Please remember that the Help Save the Humpback Whale Drawing Contest is ongoing until May 31, 2007. We have not yet chosen the 50 First Prize winners and the Grand Prize winner, so your entry is still eligible for additional prizes. Good luck!

Respectfully yours,

Kate Nattrass
